PDMA

DOCTORAL CONSORTIUM

SAVE THE DATE

July 28-30, 2021

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

During this two-and-a-half-day event, doctoral students will get an opportunity to interact with and receive guidance from invited faculty on conducting impactful research on innovation and new product development. We encourage third-year and fourth-year doctoral students to apply, and 25 students will be accepted for this consortium. There is no registration fee for the selected doctoral fellows.

Application Deadline: February 28, 2021
